

Become a PMCA Volunteer Today!

The Pasadena Museum of California Art (PMCA) is dedicated to the exhibition of California art, architecture, and design from 1850 to the present. Inspired by the state's rich mixture of cultures and inspired by its impressive geography, California art has long been defined by a spirit of freedom and experimentation. PMCA exhibitions and educational programs will explore the cultural dynamics and influences unique to California that have shaped and defined art in all media.

The PMCA has many exciting opportunities for volunteers who are willing to share their time for a great cause. PMCA volunteers have the rewarding chance to cultivate their own interest in the arts while helping to foster the success of a new Pasadena art institution.

If you are interested in becoming a PMCA Volunteer, please fill out this form and mail it in today or call the museum at (626) 568-3665.
